FCC FORM 471 HELP SECTIONS

- The Help sections on each page of the FCC Form 471 that were previously added (EPC 1.2.1 Release) have been changed slightly. Previously, there was a section title that you needed to expand to see the link to the Knowledge Base page. Now, you will see a section that contains a hyperlink. You can click on this link and a new tab of your browser will open with the Knowledge Base article that can assist with the FCC Form 471 section you are presently working on.
