

USAC has been asked to provide guidance regarding what information should be included if you use an income survey to determine your school's discount level. Below is an example of an income survey that may be helpful. In addition, we strongly recommend retaining your survey documentation in case USAC requests this information in the future. It is not mandatory to use this example for your income survey.

For additional information, please see the Alternative Discount Mechanisms page of USAC's website.
