

Follow-Up Info: E-rate Tribal Teleconference

May 14, 2020

Dear Tribal Stakeholder,

Thank you for joining this month's E-rate Tribal Teleconference, featuring a discussion with special guest speakers from the U.S. Department of Education and Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS) on resources offered for schools and libraries through the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act.

As requested by participants, we are sharing the list of resources referenced by the guest speakers during Tuesday's teleconference.

Resources

U.S. Department of Education

For questions related to the CARES Act, please contact COVID-19@ed.gov.

- U.S. Department of Education Coronavirus Page
- CARES Act Education Stabilization Fund
- Elementary and Secondary Education Emergency Relief Fund
- Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund
- Governor's Emergency Education Relief Fund
- Education Stabilization Fund Discretionary Grants
- White House on Initiative American Indian & Alaska Native Education
- Additional Resource: Bureau of Indian Education, U.S. Department of the Interior

Institute of Museum and Library Services

For questions related to the CARES Act, please contact Cynthia Landrum.

- Native American Library Services Enhancement Grant Program (Deadline: May 15, 2020)
 - To be eligible for this opportunity, Tribes would have had to apply for the Native American Basic Grant Program (Deadline was April 13, 2020)
- IMLS CARES Act for Museum and Libraries (Deadline: June 12, 2020)
- IMLS CARES Act for Native American/Native Hawaiian Library Services (Deadline: June 12, 2020)

Questions or Suggestions?

Contact USAC Tribal Liaison, Kraynal Alfred, at TribalTraining@usac.org or (202) 572-5733.