Announcements
COVID-19 Relief for Tribal Subscribers Extended

• On January 30, 2023, the Wireline Competition Bureau (WCB) released a waiver order that further extends the waiver of Lifeline recertification and reverification requirements for subscribers residing on Tribal lands through April 30, 2023. WCB anticipates that this will likely be the final extension of these waivers.

• This order also extends the waiver of the Affordable Connectivity Program’s (ACP) recertification for Tribal subscribers that participate in Lifeline and ACP. ACP recertification will commence for these subscribers after they have had an opportunity to complete the Lifeline recertification process.
USAC Overview
USAC Overview

• Universal Service Administrative Company (USAC): administers the Lifeline program and educates stakeholders on processes, systems, and rules and requirements

• The Federal Communications Commission (FCC): develops policies and regulations for the Lifeline program and provides guidance to USAC

• The Universal Service Fund (USF): exists to ensure that all people in the United States have access to quality, affordable connectivity service.
USAC Overview

- The FCC designated USAC to administer other programs with similar missions to the universal service programs and supported through appropriate funding.

Lifeline Program Overview
Additional Qualification Information

• One Lifeline benefit is allowed per "independent economic household" (household)
  • Defined as a group of people who live together and share income and expenses (even if they are not related to each other)

• Benefit qualifying person (BQP): If an individual is not eligible for Lifeline but has a dependent that is eligible (e.g., a child), the individual may qualify for Lifeline based on the status of their dependent
National Verifier Overview
National Verifier Overview
Centralized Application System

• The National Verifier is a centralized application system that determines a consumer’s Lifeline program eligibility

• Use of the National Verifier is required in all 56 states and territories (with the exception of the NLAD opt-out states: Texas, Oregon, and California, where the National Verifier leverages the state administrator Lifeline eligibility verification process)

• After qualifying for Lifeline, the consumer’s service provider must enter them in the National Lifeline Accountability Database (NLAD) to enroll them in the Lifeline program
National Verifier Overview
Centralized Application System

Consumers may apply through the NV using one of the three options:

Option 1: Apply Online
- The consumer visits https://nv.fcc.gov/lifeline
- Online application is accessible from any computer or mobile device

Option 2: Apply by Mail
- The consumer fills out the Lifeline Application Form
  - English Form
  - Spanish Form
- The consumer mails the application and supporting documentation to the Lifeline Support Center

Option 3: Apply Through a Service Provider or Tribal Partner
- The consumer may apply with the assistance of a service provider or Tribal partner
- Service providers or Tribal partners may submit an online application on the consumer’s behalf using the NV service provider portal (also available at https://nv.fcc.gov/lifeline), or
- Through the National Verifier Eligibility Check API if the service provider has elected to use that option
Lifeline Application
Apply Online

On this site you can apply for Lifeline and the Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP), which help low-income households pay for internet service and internet connected devices. Visit AffordableConnectivity.gov to learn more about ACP and visit LifelineSupport.org to learn more about Lifeline.

Instructions to complete the ACP Application online are available in English and 9 other languages.
